〈Special Lecture〉
Representing ‘The Others’ in Japanese Culture: Examination of Ainu Characters in Contemporary Japanese Films

How has the concept of Otherness been constructed in Japan and expressed in contemporary Japanese culture? Based on the premise that Japan is a multi-ethnic nation, in this talk, Yuko Kameda will examine the representations of Ainu as examples of those who are Others in Japan, and concentrate on the ethnic Otherness of the Ainu within a context of post-colonial studies.

Date: 25th November 2016
From 14:45 to 16:15: Lecture in English
Venue: Room 905, Building No. 11, Waseda University, Waseda Campus

Yuko Kameda
Project Researcher, Center for Global Discovery
Sophia University

Preliminary registration is NOT needed.

Contact Information: Anni Namba
First Year Seminar IIB 69: Film Theories and Film History
(Email: anni.namba@gmail.com)