ASHBi Workshop – Towards engineering embryonic development

Welcome to the ASHBi Workshop "Towards engineering embryonic development"

We are pleased to host the ASHBi Workshop on "Towards engineering embryonic development" on Thursday, July 20, 2023.

This workshop will bring together leading national & international scientists in the field of synthetic developmental biology and developmental engineering to discuss the latest advances in this emerging new field at the cross roads of developmental biology and stem cell research.

If you have any interest in the topic, you are welcome to attend this workshop.

Date: Thursday, 20 July 2023

Venue: Kyoto University, Memorial Auditorium (Faculty of Medicine Campus Map #7).
