

Locally-Led Disaster Management and Humanitarian Assistance (DMHA) in Asia

Online Workshop for Students

How, why, and when do locally-led disaster management and humanitarian assistance work in Asia?

Date: September 22, 2021
Time: 12:00-14:30 JST
Venue: Zoom online platform

Workshop Sessions

Session 1:
Understanding the Locally-Led Disaster
Management and Humanitarian Assistance (DMHA) Analytical Framework

Session 2:
Recognizing Successful Locally-Led DMHA Initiatives and Challenges

Target Participants:

Students interested in disaster management and humanitarian assistance.
Academics and professionals working on DMHA-related areas are also welcome.

For interested participants,

RSVP:

Ms. Marjorie Resuello, Project Researcher
resuello@fc.ritsumei.ac.jp

<https://tinyurl.com/4c6nup9d>

Interactive discussions with experts, scholars, and practitioners

Engaging structured learning activities

Collaborative action
planning workshop

For more information, please visit the DMHA webpage:

http://en.ritsumei.ac.jp/research/aji/research/wakai/04_report/

